Help pollinators!
Grow pollinator-friendly flowers.
Protect nest sites and host plants.
Avoid using pesticides.
Spread the word!

The monarch butterfly is bright orange with black, veinlike markings. It has a black border around its wings with white spots on it.

You are welcome to copy this and use it elsewhere.
Please credit the Xerces Society.
Illustration by the Allaires, Xerces volunteers
copyright by the Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation
Tel (855) 232-6639 · www.xerces.org