

Request for Docents at the Ellwood Main Monarch Aggregation Site

The City of Goleta in cooperation with the Coronado Butterfly Preserve, is continuing the docent program to provide information concerning Monarch Butterflies, at the Ellwood Main Monarch Aggregation Site.

WHO: You

WHAT: Volunteer once or more a month to aid the public in understanding the background, history, and lifecycle of the Monarch Butterfly.

WHEN: The program will consist of two three hour shifts on Saturdays and Sundays (10:00am – 1:00pm & 12:00 – 3:00pm) December 6th through mid February.

WHERE: Ellwood Main Monarch Aggregation Site.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Matt Howard with the City of Goleta as soon as possible. Docent training will occur on November 20 at 5:30p.m at City Hall. Matt can be reached by e-mail at mhoward@cityofgoleta.org or by phone at (805) 320-7848.

Thank you for your consideration!

